63 Apps Road, Maroochy River

COASTAL LOCATION MEETS RURAL LIFESTYLE

With luscious green open space and boundless character, rural opportunities like this just 12 minutes to the beach are as rare as they are valuable. Sitting on approximately 4826m² / well over one acre of land, 63 Apps Road has been immaculately restored and maintained ready for the new owner to reap the benefits of the current owners hard work.

The original Queenslander style homestead will be very popular with buyers who appreciate classic style and flexible living spaces. This dwelling is approximately 100 years old and has been fully restored by the sellers. With freshly painted original VJ (tongue and groove) board throughout, high ceilings, a fire place and hardwood timber floors, the residence exudes character in every grain.

Upon inspection you will experience the old school character mixed with new school touches. The old school feel begins in Queenslander homestead where the open plan kitchen, dining space and adjoining balcony provide a social area for everyone to sit down and talk ... like in the good old days!

The new school touches feature at the rear of the property where a wholesome, brand new tiny home sits. This dwelling is complete with a spacious deck, hardwood timber floors, a composting toilet, integrated dishwasher, air conditioning and brand new oven + cooktop. Two
