

GET A GOOD HEAD START ON THE SUNSHINE COAST

3 2 1 810m2

For first home buyers looking to enter the Sunshine Coast property market, 4 Bundarra Street, Nambour presents an exciting opportunity to secure a character-filled home with plenty of future upside. Set in a quiet, leafy street overlooking Currie Park, the existing residence offers comfortable living with polished hardwood floors, air-conditioning, a modern kitchen and generous indoor and outdoor spaces. With three bedrooms, two bathrooms and undercover parking, the home is well suited to buyers wanting an affordable entry point without compromising on location or lifestyle. Schools, shopping centres, hospitals and public transport are all within easy reach, while Maroochydore's beaches are approximately 25 minutes away. With a total landholding of 810m^2, this is a property that offers first home buyers both a place to call home today and considerable flexibility for the future.

The real point of difference is the exceptional development potential offered by the two existing lots. The property comprises Lots 130 and 131, each measuring approximately 405m^2, and is positioned within the Medium Density Residential Zone. This creates a range of exciting possibilities for developers, investors or owner-occupiers looking to capitalise on the site in the future. Subject to council approval, buyers may explore options including retaining or repositioning the existing home, developing the lots separately, or investigating a small-scale residential development. Site concepts and plans are also available to
