Opportunity is an overused word in real estate so let's be very clear. A tastefully modernised 5 bedroom home nestled amongst fruit trees, vegie gardens and a chook run on a pan flat 2 acre block with unobstructed country views to Mount Coolum, just 10 minutes from the beach and Maroochydore's CBD has just come to the market. That's a strong case for 'opportunity of a lifetime' status!

On the Sunshine Coast, the self sufficient lifestyle that is so desirable these days is generally associated with compromising on location. Not here. From the moment you follow the driveway beyond the tall, mature tree line that provides fantastic separation and privacy from the road, it becomes immediately obvious that 61 Thomas Rd is a magical property that combines tranquil rural ambience with unrivalled position.

The expansive grounds are lush and green, providing countless areas to enjoy whatever the activity of the day may be; whether you're relaxing amongst flowering gardens reading a book, entertaining friends over a BBQ on the rear terrace or playing footy/cricket on the many flat grassed sections of lawn, one constant will always be present; the incredible views of rolling hills and countryside everywhere you look.

Inside, the home itself is warm and welcoming, benefitting greatly from the owner's high standard of renovation. Neutral tones and charcoal tiles
