WHEN SIZE DOES MATTER – WARANA BEACH

When you sell with Simon - the service doesn't stop when the contract is signed!

I very much appreciated Simon's efforts with the sale and over the years.

He has kept in touch with me since we moved out of that property, keeping me informed about how property was performing in the area.

So he was a natural choice when it came to choosing an agent to sell. I did check costs with other agents, and he was competitive and no hidden charges.

I was hoping his experience in the area would assist with selling the property and it did!

Before the property went on the market he had a buyer in mind, and a contract was signed more or less immediately.

We had some issues with the purchaser's Solicitor, but he held my hand through all of that to a successful sale.

I would certainly recommend Simon Birse to anyone interested in buying or selling a property. I would certainly give him 5 stars on the google reviews site.
