Unit 22/266-268 Alexandra Pde, Alexandra Headland

ALEX BEACH FRONT ROW SEATS

The only way to get closer to the sand on main beach is walk across the road from your top floor apartment and sit on it. The valuable location of this unit has given the owner the confidence to complete a “top to bottom” renovation over the past 4 months. The result is a brand new apartment in every room right down the very expensive “never sat on dunny”. The locals know and appreciate The Headlands as one of the premier beachfront buildings on Alex Parade, and it is extremely rare to find a beach pad like this that has been completely “rebuilt”.

- Stunning water views from top floor balcony. Best seat in the house for whale watching
- Private and secure top floor location with lift access from car park
- Hard to find lock up garage for vehicle storage
- Quality tiling fully completed throughout using neutral colour palette
- Brand new stone bench tops in kitchen
- Quality cabinetry including self closing drawers in spacious kitchen
- Clever storage options, both bedrooms have new builtin robes
- Large open plan living areas as a result of a renovation rescue package that has made this unit one of the best on the Parade
