A further outdoor living space overlooks the heated in-ground magnesium swimming pool with swim jets at the side of the home. A home gym or a kid's play area would be ideal here.

The cars will be well accommodated with a double lock up garage plus there is a large workshop area in this space that would easily fit a trailer or ample room for the tradie's tools.

Bonus features include a large solar electricity system that will help keep those electricity bills at a minimum.

The area of Pelican Waters is close to all amenities including shopping centres, both primary and secondary schools, is close to the CBD of Caloundra and of course is just a very short distance to your choice of the many beaches the Sunshine Coast has to offer.

The Golden Beach shopping village with popular cafes and general day to day necessities is within walking distance.

With only a limited number of homes positioned on Lake Magellan and with many passed down through family and not offered to the market I would suggest you make your enquiry sooner rather than later.
