PRESENTING OFFERS OVER $850,000

Set back from the road and nestled behind a high timber fence you will find this large high set home full of potential on a generous block of around half an acre and with a shed so big that even Bunnings would be proud to have it!

The home is just a few minutes' drive into the beautiful township of Maleny and has been loved and enjoyed by the same family for well over 20 years. Although the home is quite liveable as is it would benefit from some renovation and updating to bring up to modern day standards.

The home has been smartly positioned on the gently sloping block so that entry at the front is at ground level. Key traditional features include hardwood timber flooring and a wood heater to keep you toasty in the cooler months.

The kitchen is at the heart of the home with stone benches, gas cooking and plenty of storage. There are several living rooms with one that leads outside to the back timber deck where lovely rural views are enjoyed.

The home has three bedrooms plus an office (or 4th bedroom) serviced by three bathrooms. The master boasts an ensuite, air-conditioning and access to the back deck.

Internal stairs lead downstairs into a double garage and to the third bathroom perfect for the tradesman utilise whilst working in the shed.

The massive shed is tucked away in the corner of the back yard must be seen to be believed! 196m² in size and certainly high enough to add a
