A large undercover area on the lower level provides the opportunity to further increase the size of the property with the approvals that are in place

Having consideration for the style and appeal of the main residence the current owner handpicked a fastidious builder to construct a 49m² 1 bedroom separate unit

It is fully equipped with a spacious kitchen, new appliances and air conditioning

We have left the unit vacant for the purpose of selling however we expect a weekly rental return of $450 per week for a permanent tenant

Having consideration for the 6 most important factors in a real estate purchase (Location, Amenities, Appearance, Land size, Development potential and neighbourhood) we believe this home scores a 10/10. The current owner has lived here for over 28 years and this tightly held street does not provide golden opportunities like this one very often.
