RENT, RENOVATE OR RESIDE, THE CHOICE IS YOURS

Located in a high and dry position, this humble home comes with the potential to rent, renovate or reside.

Private, surrounded by lovely established greenery and nestled among friendly neighbours, this property truly offers its new owners location, location location!

Within close proximity to schools, shops, the Maryborough CBD and the Maryborough Hospital, train station, and the Mary River and a bus stop directly across the road, this property offers the astute investor the perfect opportunity.

This beautiful little turn of the century workers cottage nestled high and dry in the historic Churchill st precinct waits to be brought back to its former glory.

Owner had plans for a 2 bedroom granny flat linked with a breeze way between the two in the northerly facing back yard but university beckons creating a change in circumstances.

Standout Features include:

- No flood zone
- Room at rear of property for extension, granny flat or large shed
- Fully Fenced
- Private Patio Area
